

Growing Confidence

Bringing 2020 to a close

I think we can all agree that 2020 has been quite a memorable year—maybe not always for the best reasons!!

Below are the last sessions of the year: your last chance to make some great new memories!

As I write this we are in Lockdown 2.0 in England. As a result we've had to adjust the plans for our Youth for the Wild session in November, and it is now taking place online. We have got a really exciting opportunity for you to give your input on a document for the Council. Come along, make your voice heard!

In December we're hoping all restrictions will be lifted. Come and meet us at Shropshire Wildlife Trust for a day of arty celebrations. (We'll still go ahead online, if we have to!)

To register your interest in joining us, please email: KatH@ShropshireWildlifeTrust.org.uk

Date	Activity	Theme & Location
Wed 25th November	2030: What's your vision? The team at Shropshire Climate Action Partnership really want to know what you think should happen in the county to achieve net-zero carbon by the end of the next decade.	Y4W 5pm, Online
Sun 6th December	Charcoal Making Although it might not be barbeque season, our Reserves Officer will teach you all how to make this lovely stuff!	MMWW 11am, The Ercall
Sat 12th December	Get Out, Get Festive! We've got some fab people lined up to teach you some new artistic techniques. This is also your chance to show us some of your nature-inspired creations of the year: art, photographs, poetry...	Y4W 11am—3pm, The Cut

We're also assuming we'll be able to go ahead with the next session of Make My Weekends Wild too. If you want to get outside and get some fresh air, come and join us! To book your place email: tomrj@shropshirewildlifetrust.org.uk

Lastly, for those of you looking to improve your CV, the Princes Trust has 12-week schemes running locally. The next ones will start in the new year.
